

He's The One
By Ray Guzzardo

He's the One Who stands beside me
On a cold and dreary day
He's the One that's always with me
As I try to make my way
He's the One Who walks beside me
Through each and every day
He's the One
He's the One
Yes, He's the One

He's the One Who taught me patience
So that I may understand
He's the One Who gave me courage
When He held me in His hands
He's the One Who's always loved me
Long before my life began
He's the One
He's the One
Yes, He's the One

Bridge:
There's no wall between us
There's no way that I could lose
He's the One Who has shown me
That it's an issue of the heart
He's the One
He's the One
Yes, He's the One

He's the One Who brought me through this
Through the heartbreak and the pain
He's the One Who washed my spirit
With His cool and cleansing rain
He's the One that I have trusted
And now I'm born again
He's the One
He's the One
Yes, He's the One

Bridge:
There's no wall between us
There's no way that I could lose
He's the One Who has shown me
That it's an issue of the heart
He's the One
He's the One
Yes, He's the One
